

Rock Hall Decoy Show and Sale

Saturday, August 20, 2022

10 am to 4 pm

With great pleasure we announce Rock Hall's first annual Decoy Show and Sale. We are honoring the legacy of Rock Hall carvers Johnny Glenn, August Heinefield and Jesse Urie, three of the Chesapeake's most important and influential decoy makers.

Best of Show

Our Best of Show is open to all vendors who wish to enter a working decoy from any, or all, of the three honorary carvers. You may enter one working style decoy each for Johnny, August, or Jesse. One winner will be chosen for each carver. Winner will receive a 2022 Rock Hall Decoy Show Best of Show plaque and photographs of owner and decoy will be used for 2023 decoy show advertising. There is no fee to enter a decoy.

Amateur Duck Calling Contest

We will have an adult (16 and older) and junior (15 and under) competition. This is a free style competition. You will have 60 seconds to best replicate the sound of ducks, with the object of sounding as realistic as possible. In the adult division, first place winner will receive $200, second place $100 and third place $50. In the Junior division first place will receive $100, second place $75 and third $50. Registration is $20 per adult and $10 per Junior contestant. Duck calling contest starts at 1:00 pm and all contestants are required to sign in by 12:30 pm. All contestants agree for the committee to use photographs for future advertising.

Vendor Show and Sale

We have three categories for vendor opportunities. Buy, Sell and Swap is for anyone wanting to set up and sell or swap decoys, collectibles, antiques, and art. Marketplace is open to all artisans and handcrafted products. Exhibitors is for anyone wishing to set up and display only, their collection. Items for sale and display must depict nautical, wildlife, waterfowl, birds, and fish type items. Collectible items and antiques include the above, as well as oyster cans and other items related to hunting, fishing, and life on the shore. The fee for each vendor and exhibitor is $25.

Anyone interested in a registration form should email rockhalldecoyshow@gmail.com or go to our Facebook page RockHallDecoyShow and print the registration form and waiver and mail to: Rock Hall Decoy Show PO Box 614 Rock Hall, Md 21661 All registrations must be postmarked no later than August 10, 2022.
