

41st Havre de Grace Decoy & Wildlife Art Festival

RULES & IMPORTANT INFORMATION

(Please Read Carefully)

To ensure that the show runs smoothly, please keep the following rules and conditions in mind when planning your exhibit.

- All exhibitors will be permitted to buy, sell, and swap. NO commission will be charged on any sales.
- The show's theme is Decoy & Wildlife Art. The museum and the public expects us to make every effort to maintain this standard. If your display is deviating from Decoy & Wildlife Art, you may be asked to remove items that are not appropriate.
- Exhibitors are required to provide their own backdrops and all appropriate table coverings; no bare tables are permitted.
- Space is limited. Displays must allow for proper entering and exiting between spaces and not interfere with neighbors. If your display is too large, additional space must be purchased. An attempt will be made to re-locate you to accommodate your display; however, if space is unavailable, you will need to adjust your display accordingly
- Exhibitors will be assigned space beginning March 1, 2023. We cannot guarantee space for previous exhibitors if application is received after February 28, 2023.
- The Festival Committee reserves the right to relocate an exhibitor in order to accommodate floor plan changes.
- Applications received after February 28, 2023 may not be included in the Festival issue of "The Canvasback" magazine. Please call us if there is a problem complying with this date.
- NO SMOKING or Chewing Tobacco is permitted inside buildings or on the grounds at any time.
- Alcohol is to be consumed in designated areas only.
- The sales of firearms are permitted at the Festival. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to have a valid Federal Firearms License (FFL) or have a third party with such a valid license to conduct a lawful transfer of those firearms that require an FFL for transfer.
