DECOY COMPETITION RULE BOOK

GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. All entrants must complete and sign the entry form prior to submission at the registration table.
2. Each carver must show their entry receipt for admittance to show and must pay for guest(s).
3. See contest divisions for registration, entry fees and times. All entries must be hand-delivered upon registration. There will be no arrangements for mail-in entries. All competition entries must remain on display until 4:00 PM Saturday and picked up by 5:00 PM Saturday.
4. Entries are limited to carvings that have not been entered in previous years. Any visible identifying marks will be covered by the entrant prior to competition. All entries shall be by the entrant. No detailed machine-made blanks will be allowed.
5. Business cards may be placed on carvings following judging of that competition.
6. If there are three or more entries of the same species in the miscellaneous or in any category where they are not specified as a species/class, a separate species/class will be opened to judge these decoys at show committee's discretion.
7. All entries must be carved of wood, cork, or stretched canvas. Metal and/or cast metal is not acceptable, except where required for strength. Plastic inserts may be used only on pintails, long-tailed ducks and mallard curls. NOVICE ONLY entries in Decorative Lifesize Wildfowl Division: Although hand formed habitat, feet and legs are encouraged, it is not required.
8. There is no limit on number of entries. If two or more wildfowl decoys are entered in the same species/class, then both sexes must be represented.
9. Entrants are responsible for the correct placement of their entries.
10. The Competition Committee shall have final authority related to all entries. Decision of Committee is FINAL.
